RECORDER OF DEEDS, DISTRICT OF

WASHINGTON, June 2, 1895.

Hon. John Mitchell, Jr.,

Editor and Proprietor of Planet: Dear Sir: I write to congratulate you upon the possession of a great big heart and a sound and broad mind. I have just read your editorial on the death of the great man, Hon. W. Q. Gresham, under the caption of a "Great Man Fallen." A man as broad as you show yourself in this to be need have no fears of always having a sufficient number of friends to bring him out of every contest more than conqueror. every contest more than conqueror. God hates a coward. A time server and a man who will take a wrong position on a public question merely to get the applause of a class of persons who still remain our enemies as well as his.

still remain our enemies as well as his.
Go on young man telling the truth as you know it; fighting the wrong as you find it; leaving the proper estimate of your work to the sober, intelligent and righteous judgement of the American people. The old crowd must give away to the new man of the Mitchell stripe with new ideas.

Gresham was always true to the Negro and the common people.

THE FIFTH BAPTIST CHURCH. Dedicatory Ex reises-A Fine Struc

The dedicatory exercises of the Fifth Baptist Church commenced Sunday June 2nd. At 11:30 a. m. Rev. R. Wells preached an interesting and instructive sermon. It had a marked effect. At 3:30 p. m Rev. James H. Holmes preached a forcible sermon. Entire satisfaction was given and the collection was good. At 8:30 p. m. Dr. J. E. Jones preached an able discourse. This brilliant pulpit orator was seen at his best. This new church edifice is one of the handsomest of its edifice is one of the handsomest of its size in the city. It is built of brick upon the most improved plan, has a beaded ceiling, latest style oak pews. is handsomely carpetted, has a gallerry in the front portion of the building and is an ornament to that portion of the city. Rev. J. P. Clarke, the pastor is doing a grand work here. The exercises will continue. Rev. D. L., Cosby was present and assist'd last Sunday. We shall give a more minute description of the church, the pastor and the people.
